FRENCH STATEMENT.

ARIS, November 25, 2:30 p.m.: in the Artois and in Lorraine there was fighting last night with hand grenades in several districts. Our artiliery directed an effective fire against machine gun emplacements in the region of the Faize valley, in the Somme, and in the region of Roye, at the station at Beauvraignes and at Laucourt.

On the rest of the front there was the usual artillery fighting.

Last night's French official statement reads.

Last night's French official statement reads:
The morning was calm on the whole front, save in the Woevre, at the Bois Brule, where the enemy employed asphyxiating shells without attaining results.
The afternoon was marked by artillery activity, quite violent in Artols, where the Arras railway station was hit by about fifty shells, and in the region of Loos and Souchez; to a lesser degree on the side toward Soissons and in Champagne, and rather spirited in the sectors of Flirey and Reillon and in the Vosges, at La Tete de Faux and Hartmans-weillerkopf.

Barrington Branch Recital. Barrington Branch, a young American pianist, made his initial public appearance in recital before a Washington audience yesterday afternoon in the small ballroom of the New Willard, which was well filled with an appreciative audience. Mr. Branch made his early musical studies under American masters, but for the past five years has been in Europe, and has coached with Leopold Godoswky, Mark Hambourg and Ossip Gabrilowitch.

He gave a program of exacting numbers, with sympathetic tone quality in the planissimo passages and with tremendous power in the climaxes, and was most acceptable in the Liszt transcription of Schubert's "Erl King," "La Campanella," also by Liszt, and of the Chopin numbers, the C major etude and the third and fourth movements, "Marche Funebre" and "Presto ("Wind Over the Graves"), in the Sonata, in B flat, op. 35.

The Chopin group, "Sonata in B Flat" The Chopin group, "Sonata in B Flat" (four movements), "Polonaise in A Flat Major," preludes in A major and in F sharp minor, etudes in F minor, C major and C minor, were played as one number, the artist going from each number to the succeeding one without the slightest pause, the result being a trifle confusing, except to the other planists in the audience. He gave also "Toccata and Fugue in D Minor," by Bach (Tausig transcription), and "L'Isle Joyeuse," by Debussy (Bacchanale). "Clair de Lune," by Stcherbatcheff, was also on the program, but for some reason not stated was omitted by the artist.

Life's Problem

-is to acquire during your earning period enough money or property to carry you safely through every emergency, and to have enough laid aside to take care of you comfortably in your declining years.

Living is a lifelong affair, while production is a matter of only a few years-hence if you would enjoy comfort and independence you must save while you are earning.

The Safest Investments

Are those that do not fluctuate during dis-turbed canditions of the money or steeth market. First doed of trust notes (first mortgages), well secured on real estate in the District of Columbia, constitute "gill-edge" investments. They do not depend spon the financial responsibility of indi-vidrals or corporations for their estability and are exempt from taxation as personal property. We can supply such invest-ments in amounts from 5000 upward, finand for booklet, "Concerning Loans and In-vestments."
